connections

Fill in the blanks.

On January 14th, a British couple, who loved each other so much, passed away(去世) within 11 hours after they celebrated their 85th birthdays .

Because they couldn't look after themselves at their home, they live in different hospitals.

The husband passed away, not knowing that his wife had died earlier in the day.

“They always gave a kiss to each other every time they met. They were a loving couple,” a doctor said.

“They had many same hobbies and interests. They could read each other's minds without words.

Even the nurses and doctors were so confused about that . This coincidence between them made all of us moved.”
