Read and underline the topic sentence (中心句) of each paragraph.

Hello. We are students from Thailand, and we want to save the elephants. The elephant is one of Thailand's symbols. It is on the national flag. This is a symbol of good luck.

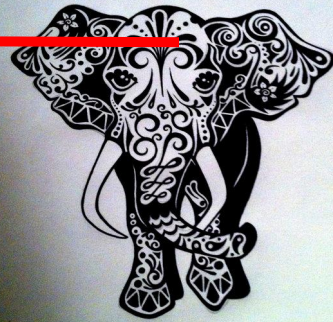

Elephants are smart animals. They can draw very well. People say that they can walk for a long time and never get tired. They also remember food and water. This helps them to live.

But elephants are in great danger. People cut down many trees so elephants are losing their homes. Some people also kill elephants for their ivory.

Paragraph 1

There are now only about 3,000 elephants (over 10,000 before). We must save the trees and not buy things made of ivory. Remember that March 13th is Thai Elephant Day.

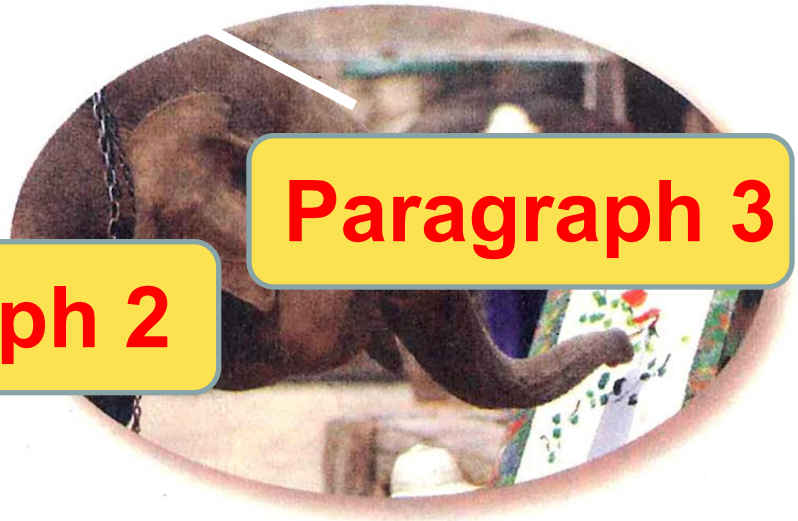

Paragraph 2

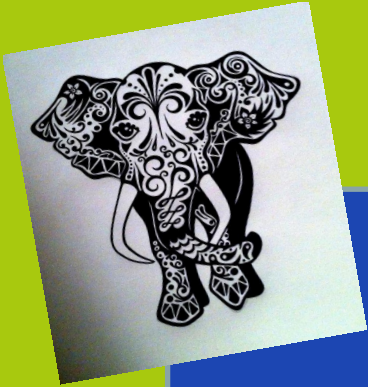

The national flag had a white elephant on it.

They can dance to a drum, a gong, a cencer or music. They can also remember places with food and water. They never forgets". Elephants can also remember places with food and water.
