Jenny's thank-you note

Dear Mom,

When I was four, I started to learn skating. At first, it was difficult. I fell down again and again. Sometimes I wanted to give up. But you cheered me up and taught me, “Falling only makes us stronger.” Your words were good for me. Finally, I became the winner. With your love, I could be successful.

Yours,
Jenny

Thanksgiving Day is coming soon.
Thank you so much.

When I was four, I started to learn skating. At first, it was quite difficult. I fell down again and again. Sometimes I wanted to give up. But you cheered me up and taught me, "Falling only makes us stronger." Your words were like the brightest stars in the dark sky. Finally, I became the winner. Without your love, I could not be successful.

Thanks again. I love you. I wish you all the best.

Tips

1. Write a beginning and an ending.
2. Modify the note to make feelings stronger.

Dear English teacher,

In Grade Seven, my _____ was afraid to speak English and _____ was upset. You told me, “Be brave and active in class.” But it was difficult for me to do that. And you said, “Everybody can learn English well with hard work. Just smile to difficulties!” Your love was great. Then, I spent much time on English study. At last, I improved.
